1 The Arthur Guinness Projects - Feast or Famine

The Arthur Guinness Projects - Championing the talent and creativity of Ireland.

The Arthur Guinness Projects exist to celebrate and reward the next chapter of Irish talent and creativity. We are looking for extraordinary people with innovative, inspiring, brilliant ideas, and the passion and drive to make them happen. So if you have a potential project in Music, Sport, Arts or Food that would benefit from financial and practical assistance, this is your chance to bring it to life.

Please vote by clicking on the link below. You will be asked to click on your Country and age before voting. Your support is greatly appreciated. If successful this help from Guinness will help drive the Irish Food Heritage Project much further, mutually beneficial across all sectors.

<https://www.arthurguinnessprojects.com/food/irish-food-heritage-project>

Irish Food Heritage Project is a multifaceted award winning food heritage initiative which seeks to promote the North West as a cultural culinary tourism destination and drive inward investment into the Irish agri-food & tourism industry using a range of food heritage revival products/services, including: Guided tours, Education projects, Exhibition trailer, catering services, publication, app, TV programming and website.

Thanks for your support!

3 Health Promoting Homes Programme

This programme is aimed at anyone from a multicultural or ethnic family.

The programme will run over 10 weeks providing 20 sessions that incorporates the following topics:

- Physical Activity
- Cook It & Healthy Snacks for Children
- Self Esteem and Personal Development
- Health Checks

Once the programme is completed, participants will receive either a gift voucher or cooking utensils. This is a great programme that will help create new friends across the community, and also learn new skills to become healthier and happier families. Don't miss out on this programme.

We will provide free Transport and Crèche facilities available if required

The programme will start on Tuesday 17th September 1pm-2pm

If you have any queries on the programme you can contact Jonathan at the Gasyard on 71365330

We hope that you enjoy the programme!

6 Free Peace and Equality Seminar - Book Now!

Niall Crowley, former Chief Executive of the Equality Authority, will be the keynote speaker at Donegal Community Workers' Co-operative's forthcoming free seminar on The Links Between Equality and Peace Building. Niall led the Equality Authority in Ireland from its establishment in 1999 until 2008. Prior to this he worked in the community and voluntary sector with the Travellers' rights organisation Pavee Point. He is the author of An Ambition for Equality, which was published by Irish Academic Press in 2006 and he now works as an independent equality and diversity expert.

Station House Hotel, Letterkenny at 9.30am on 26 September.

The seminar will also be addressed by Hilary McCollum, Project Manager of Donegal CWC's Collective Action for Positive Peace project. Prior to moving to Donegal, Hilary worked on issues of equality and human rights within local and central government in Britain for more than 20 years, with a particular focus on violence against women and girls and identity based violence.

If you are interested in equality and/or peace building, then please come along. To book a place, please email hilarymccollum@cwic.ie

This project is supported by the European Union's PEACE III Programme managed for the Special EU Programmes Body by the Community Relations Council/Pobal consortium

10 Designated Officer training

Course Title: Designated Child Protection Officer Training
Course Date(s): Thursday 24th October 2013
Cost: £35.00 per person
Course Times: 10.00 am to 4.30 pm
Venue: Strabane Council Offices, 47 Derry Road, Strabane

Are you the Designated/Deputy Designated Officer for safeguarding children in your organisation? We have designed a one day certificated course to help you explore and understand the role and responsibilities involved in this important role. Delivered by accredited Keeping Safe trainers with a background in social care, this training will outline the legal context, and explore some of the issues you may face in your role. All participants must have completed a child protection awareness raising course prior to attending. Keeping Children Safe: Training for Staff and Volunteers or Keeping Children Safe: Training for Managers, Supervisors and Management Committee Members are suitable foundation courses

Cancellation policy

Should you need to cancel your booking, a full refund will be given if written notice is received 5 working days before the course. North West Volunteer Centre regrets that if written notice is received less than five working days before the course, a £10 cancellation charge will be made. If no notice is given, full course fees must be paid. North West Volunteer Centre reserves the right to cancel a course at any time.

11 LGBT Awareness Workshops

We are rolling out some LGBT awareness raising workshops in the Strabane district. We feel that both volunteers and staff across the district could avail of a workshop.

We are keen to deliver these in the weeks beginning 9th and 16th of September. However we will strive to meet your requirements.

The workshop lasts 2hrs and gives the participants the opportunity to ask questions and learn more about LGBT and the issues affecting LGBT. The workshop also looks at how organisations can improve their inclusion and involvement of LGBT.

The workshops are free to all community and voluntary groups. Several groups can join up for delivery.

Strabane LGBT can deliver these workshops in your own community but if you cannot supply premises we can deliver at our premises.

Strabane LGBT are operating on a first come first served basis so if you're interested please get in touch with Gina as soon as possible on 028 71885857.

13 Garden of Reflection - Lunchtime Events - September 2013

The City Centre Garden of Reflection Project will host the first of its Lunchtime Events Series this week (4th September). The first session, to be delivered by Liam Campbell will look at the Derry's and Londonderry's of the world. Liam will outline the impact of this city and how we have shaped other places.

The Lunchtime Event Series is part of the City Centre Garden of Reflection Project. The project has been funded by the PEACE III Programme through the European Union's Regional Development Fund managed by the Special EU Programmes Body.

The City Centre Garden of Reflection Project is a partnership between Inner City Trust (lead partner), Derry City Council and DiverseCity Community Partnership. As well as a programme element the project has two major physical elements – the installation of lights to illuminate the City Walls and the development of the Garden of Reflection to the rear of the under construction Holywell building in Bishop Street.

The Lunchtime Events Series will run every Wednesday from 12.30-2.00 (with lunch provided) and will feature innovative projects, international visitors and thought provoking discussion. The discussion will be captured through video and podcasts through a new soon to be developed website.

The first session will take place St. Augustine's Hall, Palace Street. Additional events to take place in September will look at the future plans of the Good Relations Team of Derry City Council with Carol Stewart, Sue Divin and Angela Askin (11th September), examine the 'Derry Model' for negotiating parades and the challenges facing the Parades Commission with Robin Percival (18th September), a new model of community resourcing being attempted in Belfast with Colm Bradley (25th September) and, the significance of history in shaping our futures with a speaker from the upcoming 'Bridging Division' conference (27th September). Venues for these sessions will be confirmed soon.

The sessions are free and are open for all to attend. We just ask that you let us know if you are going to come so we can order enough food!

Please reply to Gerard to let us know if you are planning to attend gerard@gardenofreflection.org

16 Zero Waste Week 2nd – 8th September 2013

'If you are not for 'zero waste' then how much waste are you for?'

Zero Waste NW regard all items as resources which can be made use of in practical and creative ways. It makes no sense to discard useful resources in landfill or to destroy them in incinerators; even less sense when the effects of dumping and burning seriously damage our environment.

As a celebration of our world and to highlight the principles of the zero waste campaign:
Zero Waste NW invite you to join in the Waves of Tory (dancing for a clean environment and against incineration)

Sunday 8th September 2013, 2pm, The Playtrail, Racecourse Rd, Derry

Come along with your family, learn the simple dance steps and the new lyrics to the Derry Air, have fun and be part of the Zero Waste Movement.

For more information about Zero Waste NW have a look at our website www.derryair.eu

20 Join the BBC Audience Council Northern Ireland for a discussion about BBC Services

Friday 13 September 2013, 12:30 – 14:00
St. Columb's Park House, 4 Limavady Road, Derry/Londonderry

The Audience Council is hosting an informal discussion for BBC audiences in Derry/Londonderry.

The Council wants to hear about the BBC programmes and services of interest to the local audience - what you value and enjoy, and where you think the BBC could improve its offering for its audiences.

It has a particular interest in your views on the BBC's TV services - BBC One, Two, Three and Four - as well as UK-wide news and current affairs programming, which the BBC Trust is reviewing this year. And, if this is not your cup of tea, there will be time to discuss the wide range of BBC services and issues.

All feedback is welcome, both positive and negative, or somewhere in between, and whether speaking as an individual or on behalf of a group or organisation.

This is one of a series of discussions the Council is hosting to ensure that local voices are heard at the very heart of BBC decision-making.

To book a place, or find out more, call 028 9033 8856 (textphone 028 9033 8100) or email audiencecouncil.ni@bbc.co.uk A light supper will be served - please advise any dietary or other requirements. Young people under 18yrs must be accompanied by a parent/guardian, or a named responsible adult (acting in loco parentis) with parental/guardian consent to attend.

For information about the Audience Council NI visit: www.bbc.co.uk/acni
