1 Northern Ireland Human Rights Commission: Commissioners Visit to Derry~Londonderry

11am – 1.30pm, Thursday 13 June 2013, The Old Church, Clarendon Street, Derry ~ Londonderry BT48 7ES

North-West Community Network is facilitating a visit to the North-West by NIHRC's Chief Commissioner and his team of Commissioners.

This is a good opportunity for you, those you provide services to, and local residents to get to know the Commission and its work, also giving your constituents a chance to air their views directly to NIHRC.

This event follows a successful collaboration between the Network and the Commission involving three customised training sessions delivered to a broad range of community sector organisations (Oct 2012 – Feb 2013).

Whatever the focus of your work, background or needs of the members you represent, all aspects of community work and life are important to the Commission and they are committed to hearing the concerns of local people. The event will explore how to use the NIHRC in your own work supporting people and advocating for change.

11.00 - 12.30: NIHRC Commissioners Q & A session with community groups: What does human rights mean for you and the issues you are working to address?

12.30 – 1.30: Lunch will be provided.

During lunch NIHRC legal staff will be available to offer general legal advice to individuals who wish to raise a human rights concern in private.

Please use all your contacts to encourage people to come along and feel free to circulate to anyone you feel would be interested.

To register please contact neola@nwcن.نrg / 02871279090

5 Protestant identity and the Irish language talks

You are cordially invited to attend a talk on Protestant Identity and the Irish Language on,

Friday 7th June 2013 from 12.00pm to 2.00pm Admission is Free

Venue: Cultúrlann Uí Chanáin

With Linda Irvine and Gordon McCoy. Followed by a Question and answer session.

Linda Irvine is an East Belfast teacher whose husband Brian was a former leader of the UVF-aligned Progressive Unionist Party. She began her studies through a cross-community project, is the sister-in-law of the late David Irvine, former UVF prisoner who later came to international prominence through support of the peace process and efforts to develop a political voice for loyalism.

Gordon McCoy was raised in Saintfield and lives in Belfast. He has a degree in Celtic and Social Anthropology and in 1997 he received a doctorate from Queen's University, Belfast for his thesis on Protestant learners of Irish.

Anyone who attended Linda's recent talk at the Shared Future Centre on Irish Street will know that she is very engaging and will provide a different perspective on an interesting subject and Gordon McCoy has delivered his lecture to a wide variety of audiences.

6 Regional Conference on Sustainable Transport for Rural Tourism

The University of Ulster wishes to cordially invite you to attend the Sustainable Transport for Rural Tourism conference at the Everglades Hotel, Derry-Londonderry on Thursday 27th June 2013. The venue is ideally located in the UK City of Culture 2013.

The event will bring together international research partners from Sweden, Iceland, Scotland and Republic of Ireland as well as stakeholders from academia and the public and private sectors. This conference offers significant value and an excellent opportunity to meet with industry experts and learn about current trends in transport provision and the development of the rural tourism industry within the region. For your information, a programme of the conference is included.

If you wish to accept the invitation to attend, a registration form is available online at <http://business.ulster.ac.uk/transtourism/>. Should you have any questions or require further information on the event, please do not hesitate to contact me directly using the contact details enclosed.

We look forward to meeting you at the event.

7 Bursaries: INCORE Summer School 17-21 June 2013

INCORE International Summer School 17-21 June 2013
Bursaries available for Northern Ireland community relations practitioners
Application Deadline 10 June 2013 (to be received by 9am)

INCORE has received funding from the Community Relations Council for 10 bursaries for Northern Ireland community relations practitioners to attend our International Summer School. Places are available on the following modules:

Culture and Peacebuilding

Dr Stephen Ryan and Professor Brandon Hamber (INCORE)

In 2013 Londonderry/Derry is going to be the UK City of Culture. It therefore seems appropriate that INCORE will offer a new module on Culture and Peacebuilding as part of its Summer School during this year. Following a general overview of the relationships between culture and peace and an investigation of some key theories in this field, there will be a day each devoted to drama, sport and the moving image and their contribution to peacebuilding. The module will focus on experiential learning and use a range of contributors including academics and practitioners from Northern Ireland, and participants will also have an opportunity to make presentations about their own work or that of their organizations.

Peacemaking and Peacebuilding in Northern Ireland

Professor Gillian Robinson and Dr. Brendan Lynn (INCORE)

This module is aimed specifically at undergraduates or individuals interested in exploring the lessons from Northern Ireland in terms of peacemaking and peacebuilding. Through a series of lectures and workshops with INCORE staff and invited speakers participants will be able to examine some of the key themes and issues for themselves. The subject matter to be covered will include an introduction to conflict transformation and peacebuilding theory; peacemaking and the new political disposition in Northern Ireland; justice, truth and reconciliation; victims, survivors and commemoration; and public opinion and attitudinal change in Northern Ireland.

To date, numerous international applicants from over 10 countries, from a diverse range of organisations have confirmed their attendance. We would very much encourage potential Northern Ireland participants to apply as our international participants benefit enormously from your expertise. Evaluations from previous Summer Schools have highlighted the value of this international networking.

More about our Summer School visit: <http://www.incore.ulst.ac.uk/courses/ss/>. Detailed programmes can also be requested from school@incore.ulst.ac.uk.

Selection will be based on the following criteria:

Essential:

Education to degree level and/or significant work experience in peace and conflict related areas.

Resident in Northern Ireland.

Work in the voluntary or community sector in community relations.

Desirable:

Education at undergraduate/post graduate level in peace and conflict related studies.

We will prioritise applications from applicants who have not attended previous INCORE Summer Schools but those who have already attended are also welcome to apply.

Those applying for a bursary must commit to attending for the full week.

The bursary covers tuition fees and accommodation (if required). Accommodation is provided for six nights from Sunday 16 June until Friday 21 June (inclusive) in University of Ulster student accommodation. Participants will be staying in an ensuite room in self-catering apartments with a shared kitchen and dining area. The apartments are situated in the University of Ulster Student Village, Duncreggan.

For further details please click on the accommodation section of the University of Ulster's web page at: <http://www.accommodation.ulster.ac.uk/prostumag.html>

Please indicate on the application form whether or not you will require accommodation. Please note in Section C that you are applying for a bursary, and mark payment as 'Cheque' (note this is nominal, simply for form completing purposes). Also ignore all deadline dates on application form as this was for non-bursary applicants To apply online visit: <http://www.incore.ulst.ac.uk/courses/ss/register.html>

Deadline for completed applications is Monday 10 June with notification of decision by Tuesday 11 June.

Email: school@incore.ulst.ac.uk / Tel: +44 (0)2871 675500

8 Calling All Young People! ~ We're MAD LOL, are you?

July 4th in St Columb's Hall

This summer, the Youth Justice Agency in partnership with various others are hosting a MAD LOL (Making a Difference; Loving Our Lives) event as part of the 2013 UK City of Culture celebrations show casing all the good that young people do within their own communities that rarely gets the recognition it deserves.

If you, like us, get frustrated with the all too negative portrayal of young people in today's media, here is a chance to redress that balance and help us to promote a more positive and accurate image of young people.

Just register your group or individual young person for what promises to be a MAD LOL event and showcase all that they do to make this city a better place.

There are categories for:

Community involvement; cross community work; positive role modelling; overcoming adversity; inter generational work; community safety; active citizenship.

And showcasing can take the form of:

Posters; photographs; DVD's; written pieces

Or demonstrations using any medium for example:

Music; dance; sport; drama

So come along for what promises to be a fun filled day!

The event will finish with a Youth Achievement Awards Presentation Night with various special guests and prizes in all categories.

If you would like to register a group or individual, please contact Elaine at Elaine.harvey@doj.x.gsi.gov.uk to receive a registration form. For more information contact 028 7127 8070

11 "Next Steps Event" - 19th June 2013 (10.30am – 1.00pm)

Derry City Council would like to extend an invitation to you and/or a representative from your organisation to attend the 'Next Steps' event, which is being organised by Disability Equality Group NI, and hosted by Derry City Council. The event will be held in the Whittaker Suite, Guildhall, Derry.

As you are aware with the introduction of Welfare Reform in Northern Ireland and continuous change to disability related benefits there is potentially negative impacts on people with a disability within our community

It is intended that this event will provide you with an opportunity to learn more about the wider issues associated with the impending changes. In addition it will also be an attempt to inform clients on what their next steps are and who to approach when appealing benefit entitlements.

Attendees will also get the chance to become acquainted with the support mechanisms that are available to them in the form of the local groups and organisations who operate in this field within the Derry City Council area.

A light buffet lunch will be provided after the event and this will allow you the opportunity to network with the representative groups and other invited guests. Full details of the format for the event are attached for your information.

16 Fundraising events with Foyle Search and Rescue

Foyle Search and Rescue, who are celebrating their 20 year anniversary this year, are holding a series of fundraising events to raise vital funds for the Charity. On Sunday 4th August they are holding an 'It's a Knockout' event and the organisation is asking for 24 teams of 10 people to sign up and compete against each other in a series of fun and crazy events. Each team is asked to raise a minimum of £300 sponsorship (£30 per person) and team event packs will be available from Thursday 6th June, at Foyle Search and Rescue's Headquarters in Prehen.

On Friday 25th October the Charity are holding a Gala Ball in the City Hotel to celebrate their 20th Anniversary. It will be a night of celebration, commemoration and acknowledgement of the dedication of the organisation's fantastic volunteers. The evening will include a sparkling wine reception, four course meal and entertainment by "Hudson Blue". Guests will receive a complimentary goodie bag containing a full size perfume or aftershave fragrance, all kindly donated by Boots Chemist, and all guests will be entered into an exciting prize draw with the winner being awarded £1000 on the night. Tables seat 10 people at a cost of £450.00 or single tickets can be purchased at a cost of £50.00 each. The Charity are asking for the help of local businesses to sponsor tables and to help out with prizes for a special prize draw.

The Charity's annual 'Bucket Appeal' collections will take place from Monday 10th June 2013 to Sunday 23rd June 2013, throughout different areas within the City. During the appeal, Foyle Search and Rescue Volunteers will be knocking on doors between 6.00pm and 9.00pm each night. All Authorised Collectors will Carry a FS&R identification Card. Last year's appeal was a great success and they are hoping to build on that this year.

In 2012 Foyle Search and Rescue responded to 164 incidents – their highest number to date. They rescued 21 people directly from the water, took 78 distressed individuals to a place of safety and recovered 6 bodies, returning them to their loved ones. The Charity relies heavily on the financial backing of the public to enable them to continue their work. In the past they have had wonderful support from people in the city and hope that support will be continued into the future.

If anyone would like to give up some of their spare time to help with the bucket appeal collections, enter a team into the 'It's a Knockout' event or purchase tickets/donate prizes for the Gala Ball they can do so by contacting Foyle Search and Rescue on 028 71 313800 or emailing foylesearch@lineone.net. All help would be greatly appreciated.

17 Men's Health MOT

Bogside and Brandywell Health Forum is holding a Men's Health MOT event in Long Tower Centre on Wednesday 12 June between 6-8pm to coincide with Men's Health Week.

The event will provide health information and health checks for men including cholesterol, blood pressure, weight checks, eye tests, foot care, dental checks and much more. Dr. O Hagan from Bayview Medical Practice will open the event with a humorous presentation on men's health at 6pm and will also be available to speak with men privately if anyone wishes to discuss anything with him. A barber will also be available to cut hair!!

Tea and sandwiches will be served. £1 entry

18 The Word of Breda

Foyle Pride is very proud to bring you The Word of Breda, Friday 14th of June in the CCA 10-12 Artillery Street, Derry~Londonderry. Admission is free. This event

The Bearded Ladies presents...

The Word of Breda- A one woman show

'I'm not a lesbian lads.... I just like driving tractors'

Join sapphic storyteller Breda Larkin in this hilarious and thought-provoking exploration of her life through the triple lenses of sexuality, religion and em...facial hair.

Having discovered upon entering primary school that she was in fact A GIRL, it wasn't long before Breda had to contend with the stifling limitations of pinafores, first communion dresses and knitting!
'I'm knitting nothing!'

From there it was an uphill struggle against the forces of heteronormativity, patriarchal society...and loafahs! Flicking her baked beans across the dinner table in a tactful attempt to come out to her parents, Breda had found her calling in life, and it had nothing to do with becoming a bride of Christ (although living in a convent with a community of sexually frustrated women and scones on tap did sound appealing!) Follow Breda as she journeys from 'getting the shift' with the local lads for 'cream buns n' snickers' to breaking the hearts of her imaginary lesbian camogie team and cartoon reporter April O' Neill, by falling in love with a beautiful real live girl and becoming a fully-fledged dickie-bow aficionado.

Written and performed by: Breda Larkin
Co-Directed by: Evelyn Quinlan and Nicola Depuis

21 Archaeology Days / Local Archaeology Days

The Friend of Prehen House and Prehen Historical and Environmental Society wish to inform you that you can GET DIGGING at Prehen House this month.

The Northern Ireland Environment Agency and the Centre for Archaeological Fieldwork at Queens University Belfast are organising an archaeological dig in the grounds of Prehen House where a possible Plantation Fort exists.

This dig is in association with Derry City Council's Heritage and Museum Service.

The dig will run from Tuesday 4th June until Friday 21 June.

Dig volunteers will be welcome to come along on each day of the exploration. Transport will be provided for volunteers, leaving each day at 9.30am from the Railway Museum Foyle Road. (Lunch provided for volunteers). For information please contact North West Volunteer Centre, 22 Bishop Street. Tel: 028 7127 1017 or email yes@volunteeringnorthwest.co.uk

The dig area will be open on afternoons each Friday the 7th, 14th and 21st June between 2 and 4pm (Everyone Welcome)

There will be a special family day on Saturday the 22nd June between 1pm and 4pm when visitors can come along, visit the site and meet some of the 17th century residents of Prehen.

You can follow the progress of the dig by logging into <http://legenderrydigs.blogspot.co.uk> and on Twitter @PrehenDig

As part of the archaeology days programme there will be a tour of local potential archaeological dig sites. This ancient pathways tour will include the Foyle Fisheries Ice House, the site of the Castle, Bawn and Souterrains at Newbuildings, the ancient Abbey and Nunnery at Rossnagalliagh and the old Prehen village.

This tour will be led by George McLaughlin of PHES. The tour will start and finish at Prehen House.

This tour leaves Prehen House on Sunday the 16th June at 1pm – free transport will be provided
