1 Intercultural Arts Grants Programme

Improving relationships between and within communities and building a shared and better future for everyone, is a vital element of the Arts Council's vision, which is to place the arts at the heart of life in Northern Ireland. That vision applies to everyone. It is absolutely inclusive and means ensuring that everyone living here - regardless of social, economic, community or ethnic background - has the opportunity to access and engage fully with the arts, and enjoy the many benefits of doing so.

As part of its Intercultural Arts Strategy, this 3-year Intercultural Arts Grants programme, launched in May 2012, aims to provide opportunities for minority ethnic communities across Northern Ireland to access the arts; and use artistic activities as a creative vehicle in which to explore and highlight social issues that impede access and participation in the arts.

Projects for this programme will be targeted, locally tailored and informed by the social issues identified within the strategy. Projects will demonstrate clear linkage with the key strategic themes of the programme identified below.

The Arts Council Intercultural Arts Strategy can be downloaded here (PDF)

This programme has its own priorities and criteria. However, all applications should fit within the objectives stated in the Council's five year plan and within its artform policies.

Please note: It is the responsibility of all applicants to ensure that they are using the most up-to-date funding application forms. Guidance Notes or Application forms downloaded before programme opening dates may not be current.

Deadline: 4pm, Thursday, 12th September 2013

Decisions by: December 2013

4 Nominations open for Justice in the Community awards

Nominations have now opened for the Justice in the Community Awards in Northern Ireland. They recognise individuals or groups who, daily, make their area a better and safer place to live. If you think someone or some organisation has made an outstanding contribution to the criminal justice system within your local community, you can nominate them through nidirect.

How to nominate

These individuals or bodies often work on a voluntary basis, selflessly, with their efforts going unnoticed. The Justice in the Community Awards will recognise those who are making a real difference to their community.

Justice in the Community awards \(crime, justice and the law section\)

Completed nomination forms must be submitted by 5.00 pm on Friday 13 September 2013 to:

Venue: The Women's Centre, Port Road, Letterkenny

Cost: Free

Register: Places are very limited. Email elaine@smashingtimes.ie or phone +353 (0)1 8656613 to register.

About: Smashing Times Theatre Company is offering a free intercultural theatre workshop day in Letterkenny, working with members of the Letterkenny Intercultural Platform Group and the Face to Face theatre group using Theatre of the Oppressed techniques. Delivered by Idan Meir, this drama workshop will be centred on the creative process and will use this process to explore issues of human rights and equality, including issues of racism, sectarianism and gender. Suitable for everyone aged fourteen plus.

Theatre Director and Facilitator, Idan Meir is an independent director with leading theatre companies in Ireland, Northern Ireland and in the UK. He is a co-founder of Tel Aviv/Tulkarm Forum Theatre Group in Combatants for Peace (Israel/Palestine), an activist theatre group that aim to build a bridge between Israelis and Palestinians by using forum theatre. In Donegal he is the founder and the director of Face to Face, an Intercultural Forum Theatre Group that uses Theatre of the Oppressed for fighting against racism, sectarianism and social exclusion. Idan is working on a cross border and cross communities basis, and his work is continually informed and inspired by the stories from the people and the communities with whom he works.

Smashing Times Theatre Company is a professional theatre company involved in professional performance, training and participation. The work of the company is underpinned by a rights-based approach and a commitment to artistic excellence and social engagement. For more information on Smashing Times please visit www.smashingtimes.ie.

The Creative Connections project is supported by the European Union's European Regional Development Fund, through the EU Programme for Peace and Reconciliation managed for the Special EU Programmes Body by Donegal County Council.

13 The Laramie Project - Culturlann - 27 June 2013 @ 7.30pm

The Laramie Project is a verbatim play about the reaction to the torture and murder of Matthew Shepherd in 1998. He was a student in Laramie, Wyoming and this play is based on a series of interviews conducted with the Laramie residents in the aftermath of his murder. Matthew's murder focused attention on the lack of hate crime legislation in various states including Wyoming.

'A hate crime is a hate crime – you murder someone, you hate them'

19 Digital & Broadcast Media Workshops in July & August 2013

As well as publishing VIEW social affairs online magazine, VIEWdigital also organises media workshops, designed to support organizations within the Community and Voluntary Sector to both upskill and empower their employees in their outreach and communications work.

Arranged into stand-alone sessions or groups of related areas, our workshops cater for all levels of experience, from beginner through to those holding front line media roles. Our team of established practitioners is geared towards equipping professionals with "best practice" skills to implement both in their day to day work and strategic planning.

So, if you need to learn how to develop an integrated social strategy, prepare for a broadcast interview, or even shoot your own in-house videos and create a portfolio of content, VIEWdigital is on hand to ensure you use the media to your advantage.

VIEWdigital can offer tailored workshops for individual organisations, or deliver any course onsite at your premises. For example, VIEWdigital has recently worked onsite with both the staff at The Byes Project, Belfast and student volunteers with NALA (National Adult Literacy Agency), Dublin For more information, please contact Una Murphy email: unamurphy@viewdigital.org.
